INDEX FOR OCTOBER

October 1 (Wednesday)
Reagan, Gorbachev Will Meet in Iceland Oct. 11-12 (p. 1)
House Votes to Override Reagan Veto on Sanctions (p. 1)
Pre-Birth Radiation Victims 'Have Higher Chances of Getting Cancer' (p. 2)
Ex-Foreign Minister Shigemitsu's Memorabilia Displayed (p. 2)
Young Sees Opening for Better Japan-U.S. Understanding (p. 3)
Miyazawa's English Silences Press Corps (p. 3)
Nikkyoso Teachers Less Than Half of Total for First Time (p. 3)
Rising Oceans Could Flood Cities: Scientists (p. 6)
Tobacco Market Still Not Open, Importers Charge (p. 9)
Editorial: Bottlenecks in Software Development

October 2 (Thursday)
Gorbachev Wants Japan's Cooperation (p. 17)
Poll Shows Nakasone's Popularity Going Down (p. 17)
NTT Shares Go on Sale to Big Firms (p. 18)
Theory Explains Sea of Japan Quakes (p. 19)
Hispanic Caucus Accepts Nakasone's Apology (p. 19)
U.S. Agency OKs Large-Scale Test of Drug for AIDS Patients (p. 21)
U.S. Senate Passes Sweeping Anti-Drug Bill (p. 21)
Reagan Vows to Fight World Trade Deficit (p. 23)
Soviet Factory Workers to Get More Pay for Higher Production (p. 23)
S. Korea Throws Japan in Judo (p. 29)
Editorials: Hopes for Superpower Preparatory Summit
Finnish President's First State Visit

October 3 (Friday)
U.S. Stresses It Has Not Agreed to Stabilize Dollar (p. 31)
Attempt on Gandhi's Life Fails (p. 31)
3 Agencies Plan to Cooperate on Survey of 100 IC Plants (p. 32)
Baby Panda Tries First Bamboo Roll (p. 32)
Project Lets City Kids Taste Village Life (p. 33)
325,000 Black Miners Stage One-Day Walkout in S. Africa (p. 34)
High Heels Pain Women but Make Them Feel Pretty (p. 35)
First of 4 Chernobyl Reactors Resumes Operations (p. 38)
Editorials: U.K. Defense: A House Divided
Human-Animal Togetherness

October 4 (Saturday)
Nakasone Retracts 'Racist' Quote, Apologizes to Japan (p. 45)
Gandhi's Would-Be Assassin May Be Sikh (p. 45)
1985 Crimes Hit Postwar Record High: White Paper (p. 46)
Second JICA Official Arrested for Bribery (p. 46)
Biggest Telescope Made With Satellite's Aid (p. 47)
Thousands of Migrant Birds Found Dead in Spain's Coto Donana Nature Reserve (p. 47)
White S. African Teen-Ager Sentenced to Death for Raping 18-Year-Old Black (p. 48)
U.S. May Request Gov't Talks on Kansai Int'l Airport Project (p. 50)
Editorials: Gulf War's Unspent Passions
A Threatening Rise in Land Prices

October 5 (Sunday)
Iceland Meet May Not Produce Joint Statement: U.S. Officials (p. 59)
Nikkei Average Records 2nd Largest TSE Day-to-Day Gain (p. 59)
52 Sentenced for 1971 Narita Airport Clash (p. 60)
Fujio Hits Nakasone for Firing Him and Apologizing to ROK (p. 60)
Japan's First Astronaut to Fly in 1991: NASA (p. 60)
NASA Plans Next Shuttle Launch in Feb. '88 (p. 61)
Mass Starvation Threatens S. Sudan (p. 62)
IMF's Mexico Rescue Plan Tests Baker Strategy (p. 63)
GM Won't Join 2nd Int'l Telecom Service (p. 63)
Editorial: Dragging Toward the 5-Day Week (p. 64)
S. Korea Sweeps Boxing Gold (p. 71)

October 6 (Monday)
Soviet Nuclear Submarine Fire 'Not Completely Out' (p. 73)
'N-Weapons Plant in Israel' (p. 73)
Doctors Increasing Study of How to Treat Sports Injuries, Rehabilitate Patients (p. 74)
Cambridge English School to Open in Ikebukuro (p. 74)
Indian Police Battle Rioters in Delhi (p. 75)
Pontiff Appeals for One-Day Halt in World Conflicts (p. 76)
Marcos Seeking to Sue R.P. for $10 Mil. in U.S. Lawsuit (p. 77)
Starvation Deaths Reported in Sudan Relief Camps (p. 77)
Editorial: China: Conservatism vs. Modernization (p. 78)
China Tops Gold Haul as Tenth Asiad Closes (p. 81)

October 7 (Tuesday)
Damaged Soviet N-Sub Sinks in the Atlantic: U.S. (p. 89)
Exiled Soviet Human Rights Leader Yuri Orlov in New York (p. 89)
Nakasone Determined to Introduce New LDP Anti-Espionage Legislation (p. 89)
Report Shows Acid Rain Falling Throughout Japan (p. 90)
Fashion Experts to Celebrate Tuxedo's 'Birthday' (p. 91)
Oklahoma Rivers Slowly Receding (p. 92)
U.S. Delegation to Test Japan's Pledge to Open Airport Project (p. 95)
Shrinking U.S. Oil Reserves May Plunge to Lowest Levels in 4 Years, Study Warns (p. 96)
Editorials: Agreement on N-Energy Warning System
Competition in Int'l Telecom Services

October 8 (Wednesday)
USSR Discounts Radiation Danger From Sunken Sub (p. 105)
Moscow to Start Partial Pullout From Afghanistan, Report Says (p. 105)
Captured Pilot U.S. Adviser: Nicaragua (p. 105)
Singaporean Man, 43, Receives 1-Year Suspended Term for Credit Card Fraud (p. 106)
Group Meets Success Using Oxygenation Device to Clean River (p. 106)
Seminar Participants Conclude Academia, Gov't, Industry Must Cooperate in R&D (p. 107)
UNESCO Head Decides to Step Down in 1987 (p. 108)
Vietnam Calls on U.S. to Start Era of Friendship, Cooperation With Hanoi (p. 108)
N-Sub Poses No Danger, U.S. Experts Say (p. 109)
Arab Bomber Says He Was Syrian-Trained (p. 109)
Becterm's Computer Systems Coming to Japan (p. 111)
Editorials: JNR Bills Require Thorough Debate
A Unique Study of Crime in Japan

October 9 (Thursday)
U.S. Cos. Out of Kansai Airport Phase One Bids, Still Hopeful (p. 119)
Taiwanese Gov't to Propose Lifting of Martial Law: Chiang (p. 119)
Nicaragua Puts Captured U.S. 'Adviser' on Display (p. 119)
Ancient Mirror Found in Kyoto Burial Mound (p. 120)
Writer Sato Decides to Part With Gov't Curriculum Council (p. 120)
Mitsui Pond to Be Made Into Sanctuary for Wild Birds (p. 120)
Japanese Team Finds Way to Tap Geothermal Energy (p. 121)
Japan Loses One of Its Few Falconers (p. 121)
U.S. Senate Panel Cites Serious Spy Threat (p. 123)
Encyclopedia Said to Be 1st Non-Marxist Reference Book in China (p. 123)
Soka Gakkai Festival Marks U.N. Year of Peace Fellowship (p. 126)
Editorials: Construction: Americans at the Door
Mr. Peres as Hawk-Tamer

October 10 (Friday)
Japan Asks U.S. to Discuss Missiles in Asia at Summit (p. 135)
U.S. Warns of Protectionism over Kansai Airport Project (p. 135)
Decline in Physical Fitness Seen Among Japanese Adults (p. 136)
'Japanese Ways Likely to Be Scrutinized Abroad in Future' (p. 137)
Japan Engineers Win Award for Waste Study (p. 137)
Kalb Quits Post Over Disinformation Issue (p. 138)
Sudan's Prime Minister Claims Threat of Starvation Is Easing (p. 139)
Amnesty Int'l Reports Chinese Nuns Molested by Police (p. 139)
Many Auto Parts Makers Turn to N. America for Production (p. 141)
Editorials: Loss of a 'Yankee' Submarine
The Drug Problem: Japan Too

October 11 (Saturday)
Captured U.S. Crewman Links CIA to Directing Contra Flights (p. 149)
Weinberger Inspects Rocket Base in S.W. China (p. 149)
Kokuro's Entire Leadership Quits After Plan Rejected (p. 149)
Japanese Receive 6 Times More X-Rays Than U.K. Nationals (p. 150)
Mexico Hosts 13-Nation Anti-Drug Meet (p. 151)
Chilean Opposition to Boycott Pinochet Normalization Talks (p. 152)
'U.S. Farmers Lack Competitive Drive' (p. 155)
Editorials: Not Quite the 'Road Warriors'
Fairness: Missing Goal in Tax Reform

October 12 (Sunday)
Reagan, Gorbachev Open Reykjavik Summit Meet (p. 163)
Over 230 People Killed in Big El Salvador Quakes (p. 163)
High Rate of Short-Lived 'Acid Paper' Gov't Documents Found in Diet Library (p. 164)
8 Similar Meteorites Found on Earth May Be Pieces of Mars: Scientists (p. 165)
Perez de Cuellar Re-Elected U.N. Chief (p. 166)
High Doses of Vitamin C Said to Lower Liver Cancer Risks (p. 167)
Editorials Boosts to English-Language Learning

October 13 (Monday)
1,800 Feared Dead in Salvador Quake (p. 179)
Editors Protest White House Disinformation Tactics (p. 179)
Clues From Yamataikoku? Another Mirror Is Found (p. 180)
Queen Elizabeth II Arrives in Beijing for Six-Day Visit (p. 181)
West Germany's Biggest Anti-Nuclear Rally in Three Years Goes Peacefully (p. 182)
Editorial: The Third World Debt Crisis
Carp Clinch Pennant (p. 188)

October 14 (Tuesday)
Summit Winds Up in Stalemate Over SDI (p. 195)
2 Americans Get Nobel for Medicine (p. 195)
Police Query 7 Caught in Radicals' Den (p. 196)
Slight Quakes Recorded at Oshima Island, Ajiro (p. 196)
Relief Airlift Starts for Starving in Sudan (p. 197)
'Hollowing Economy' Unlikely to Trouble Japan: MITI Report (p. 199)
OPEC Chief Warns of New Energy Crisis (p. 200)
Editorial: Dashed Hopes for Arms Pact

October 15 (Wednesday)
Six Bombs Fired in Downtown Tokyo; Police Suspect Radicals (p. 209)
SDI Sole Reason for Lack of Summit Deal: Reagan (p. 209)
Elie Wiesel Awarded Nobel Peace Prize (p. 209)
Gov't in '65 Gave Shrine War Criminals' Names (p. 210)
New Method for Replacing Old Nuke Reactor Displayed (p. 210)
Firms' Productivity Gains Should Be Used to Provide Job Security, Report Stresses (p. 211)
Mitterrand Says He Will Not Seek 2nd Term (p. 212)
Relief Flights Now Reaching Starvation Victims in S. Sudan (p. 213)
N. Korean Pique; Baseball Gets Nod (p. 221)
New Zealand Defeats 8th Straight Yacht (p. 221)
Editorial: Heavy Industrial Firms Move Toward Higher Tech

October 16 (Thursday)
Soviet Union Not Shutting Door on Arms Process: Gorbachev (p. 223)
USSR Starts First of Six Afghan Unit Pullouts (p. 223)
Deadly Karate Kick May Cost Briton ¥16.79 Mil. (p. 224)
World-Noted Artist Ogisu Succumbs at 84 in Paris, Painting to the End (p. 224)
Illegal Laborers From SE Asia Increasing Here (p. 225)
Newspaper Convention Opens on Plea to Cooperate Against Sensationalism (p. 225)
Ancient Cities in China, Japan Linked (p. 225)
'Prize Belongs to Holocaust Survivors' (p. 226)
Space Test Ban Would Not Have Hurt Star Wars Program, Scientists Say (p. 226)
Competition Rising Among Japanese Firms Investing in U.S. Real Estate (p. 228)
Japan Product Fair in Moscow (p. 228)
Editorials: Honor to a Humanist
Expanding Sino-American Relations

October 17 (Friday)
Lee Urges More Japanese Aid for ASEAN Nations (p. 237)
2 Arab Groups Claim Credit for Jerusalem Grenade Attack (p. 237)
Nigerian Nobelist Is First African to Win Nobel Prize for Literature (p. 237)
Yokote, Inamura Deny Involvements in Payoff Scandal (p. 238)
Chance at 'Emperor' Coins Draws Hopeful Buyers (p. 238)
USAF Aircraft in ROK Get OK to Join Joint War Maneuvers (p. 239)
Blast Furnace's 100th Year Marked (p. 239)
Cancer-Preventing Gene Found by Doctors (p. 241)
Alleged El Al Bomber Claims He Thought Lover Was Carrying Drugs (p. 241)
FRG Warns Japanese Auto Cos. of Increasing Protectionism (p. 243)
Editorials: UNESCO: Exit Mr. M'Bow
Health and Sport in Question

October 18 (Saturday)
Seoul Nabs Opposition Deputy Following Lifting of Immunity (p. 251)
Construction Bonds Worth ¥133 Billion to Be Issued (p. 251)
Japan Becomes Member of U.N. Security Council (p. 251)
Ainu Protest Premier's Labeling of Japan as 'Racially Homogeneous Nation' (p. 252)
Nakasone Stresses Intention to Make 'Appropriate' Yasukuni Visits (p. 252)
Soviet Dissident Goldfarb Released to U.S. (p. 253)
Caltech Telescope-Camera Lands After 28-Hr. Flight (p. 253)
U.S. Solons OK Anti-Drug Bill Minus Death Penalty Clauses (p. 253)
Shamir Named Israel's Ninth Prime Minister (p. 254)
Editorials: Afghanistan: Too Little, Too Late
The Fleet Street Revolution

October 19 (Sunday)
Moscow Might OK U.S. Testing of SDI Outside Lab: Karpov (p. 265)
Soviet, U.S. Summiteers Agreed to Distance Missiles From Japan (p. 265)
Police Search Battleflag Faction Hideouts (p. 266)
Millions of Rural Chinese Suffering Due to Drought (p. 267)
New French Dictionary Issued After 50 Years (p. 267)
Congress Passes New U.S. Immigration Bill (p. 268)
Editorial: Making More Space in Tokyo

October 20 (Monday)
Moscow Tells Five U.S. Diplomats to Leave Soviet Union (p. 279)
Gandhi, Thais Agree on Viet Pullout (p. 279)
Spate of Tremors Shock Izu Area Residents (p. 280)
Crown Princess Marks Arrival of 52nd Birthday (p. 280)
'Reagan Has Signed Hasenfus Into Prison' (p. 281)
Last Bay of Pigs Invader Freed After 23 Years in Cuban Prison (p. 281)
NPA Frees 2 Soldiers Unharmed (p. 282)
Editorial U.S. Policy in Nicaragua Questioned

October 21 (Tuesday)
Plane Crash in S. Africa Kills Mozambican Leader (p. 295)
Enrile Claims Military Support as Rift in R.P. Gov't Widens (p. 295)
Mitsubishi Coal Plans Closure of Oldest Mine (p. 296)
4 Years Demanded for Owner of Hotel in Which 33 People Died in '82 Blaze (p. 296)
Error at U.S. N-Plant Could Have Caused Accident (p. 297)
Soviet Military Power Growing, Hays Claims (p. 298)
'Great' Quake Hits Kermadec Isles: U.S. Seismologists (p. 298)
Editorial: Shake-Up of International Auto Industry

October 22 (Wednesday)
Hasenfus Formally Charged Before Sandinista Revolutionary Tribunal (p. 309)
Gorbachev Visit to Japan Certain, Kapitsa Assures (p. 309)
Use of Scandalous Photos Must Stop, Warns Bureau (p. 310)
1 Dead, 1 Seriously Injured in Tokyo University Students' Double Suicide Bid (p. 310)
Suharto Accepts Nomination for Fifth Presidential Terms (p. 312)
Video Banking to Enter Int'l Market (p. 313)
Editorials: Japan and USSR After 30 Years
Unemployment: A Looming Problem

October 23 (Thursday)
U.S. Orders Expulsion of 55 Soviet Diplomats (p. 323)
'U.S. Tentatively Rejects RMA Suit Over Japan's Rice Policy' (p. 323)
'Long March' Survivor Marshal Ye Dies Aged 90 (p. 323)
Tokyo Foreigners Hired to Help Students Learn 'Live' Languages (p. 324)
Americans' Awareness of Japan Found to Be Deepening (p. 325)
Scroll Done by Korean Martyr Found in Shikoku (p. 325)
Filipinas Brighten the Lives of Farmers in Yamagata Prefecture (p. 325)
Gandhi Drops Cousin, Names 7 New Ministers in Reshuffle (p. 326)
Dept. Stores Post Record Profits, Sales in 1st Half (p. 330)
U.K. Gov't to Sell British Airways Next Year (p. 331)
Editorial: A Nobel for Nigeria's Mr. Soyinka
Shizuoka Prefecture Looks to the Future (p. 339)

October 24 (Friday)
Prime Minister's Advisory Team Endorses Draft Tax Proposals (p. 345)
Moscow Expels Five More U.S. Diplomats (p. 345)
N. Korea's Kim in Moscow (p. 345)
Siamese Twins Returning Home (p. 346)
Debate Over Gov't-Sponsored Health Insurance Bill Starts (p. 347)
Iran Switches to Night Attacks in Gulf Tanker War (p. 348)
Walesa Refused Passport for U.S. Trip, Wife Says (p. 348)
Wiesenthal Center Releases List of 17 Suspected Nazi Criminals (p. 349)
Osaka Plans to Become Futures Capital (p. 351)
Hyundai Group Storms U.S. Market With Computer (p. 352)
Editorial: Reflections on Newspaper Week

October 25 (Saturday)
U.K. Cuts Ties With Syria; 'Proves' Bomb Plot Link (p. 361)
Special Panel Okays 8 Bills on Privatizing, Dividing JNR (p. 361)
Teacher Acquitted of '74 Strike Activities (p. 362)
Report Shows Japanese to Be Enjoying High Living Standards (p. 362)
Low-Cost, Dictionary-Sized Device Measures Atmospheric Radiation (p. 362)
Teen's Tit-for-Tat Lawsuit May Bust School District (p. 364)
American Economy Showing Signs of Vitality (p. 366)
Editorials: Inadequate Debate on JNR Bills
Depression Over Geneva

October 26 (Sunday)
Reagan Withdraws U.S. Envoy to Syria in Support of U.K. (p. 375)
Ballet by Japan's Ambassador Performed in Beijing (p. 375)
Electron Beam Energy World Record Set (p. 376)
2 Koalas Arrive in Yokohama (p. 376)
Radiation Experiments Used Humans: U.S. (p. 377)
America's 'Oldest' Woman Dies at '127' (p. 377)
People Losing Hope Over Lack of Direction, No Jobs: Enrile (p. 378)
Editorial: Not-So-Simple School Reforms
TMI, Chernobyl: Is Japan Next? (p. 385)

October 27 (Monday)
Thai Airbus Makes Forced Landing at Osaka Airport (p. 391)
U.S. Agreed to Arms Ban: USSR (p. 391)
Enrile Tells Marcos Loyalists at Rally of Communist Threat (p. 391)
Depressed JNR Motorman Attempts Suicide (p. 392)
N-Power Use Enters 30th Year (p. 392)
Signs of Nearly Extinct Rhino Found in Malaysia (p. 393)
Editorial: Political Truce in the Philippines
Mets Miracle at Shea Stadium (p. 400)

October 28 (Tuesday)
Ministry Begins Investigation of Thai Airways Plane Mishap (p. 407)
Kenji Osano, Lockheed Trial Defendant, Dead at Age 69 (p. 407)
Japan-U.S. War Games Gets Under Way (p. 408)
Japan's Nuclear Path: Is It Worth the Risks? (p. 408)
Religious Leaders Gather to Pray for Peace (p. 409)
4,000 S. Africa Gold Miners Go on Strike for More Wages (p. 410)
Fifth N-Powered Carrier Joins U.S. Navy's Fleet (p. 412)
Banks Cuts 3rd World Loans Despite U.S. Plan (p. 414)
Seko Snags Chicago Marathon (p. 420)
Seibu Comes Back to Scoop Series (p. 421)
Editorial Troubles at IBM Mirror Computer Industry

October 29 (Wednesday)
Gov't Panel Submits Final Proposals for Tax Overhaul (p. 423)
USSR-China Power-Plant Deal Reflects Improved Relations (p. 423)
U.K. Angry at EC Snub Over Syria Issue (p. 423)
ASDF Says 18 Pilots Flew Jets to Fukuoka Airport for Party (p. 424)
Holocaust Survivor on Lecture Tour (p. 424)
U.S. Industry Leader Blasts Osaka Airport Bidding System (p. 425)
Last Japanese Whaler Leaves Port for Antarctic (p.425)
FRG, France to Boost Language Ties (p. 426)
Reagan Signs Anti-Drug Law; Stiffer Penalties Provided (p. 427)
Magazine Says Soviet Rocket Put Satellite Into Useless Orbit (p. 427)
'World's Oldest Profession' Stalks Out of Kremlin's Open Closet (p. 430)
GATT OKs EC Call to Discuss Japan-U.S. Microchip Deal (p. 431)
Mets Rob Red Sox, Win World Series (p. 437)
Editorial: A Greater U.N. Role for Japan

October 30 (Thursday)
Grenade Carried by Gangster Believed Cause of Jet Accident (p. 439)
ROK Students Stage Anti-Gov't Demo From University Rooftops (p. 439)
Siamese Twins Viet, Duc Go Home (p. 440)
Illegal Korean Family Won't Have to Leave Japan Just Yet (p. 440)
S. Koreans Broiled by LDP Hawks' 'War Threat' (p. 441)
Front-Line Leaders Ponder Security After Machel's Funeral (p. 442)
Religious Heads Plan to Hold 1987 Prayer Summit in Japan (p. 443)
Singer Marie Osmond Weds Again (p. 443)
Japan 2nd to Use Satellite News System (p. 444)
Editorials: Going International With a Big Bang
A Decade of Realistic Defense Efforts
ASEAN Countries Strive for Economic Recovery

October 31 (Friday)
BOJ Expected to Lower Discount Rate to 3% (p. 463)
Riyadh Replaces Yamani; Nazer Named Successor (p. 463)
Working Housewives' Tax Cut Plan Reconfirmed (p. 463)
American Trying to Return Flag of Late WWII Soldier (p. 464)
Gov't Gives China ¥10.11 Billion for Construction of Youth Center (p. 465)
3 American Diplomats Leave Lebanon for Security After Syria Envoy Recalled (p. 466)
Researcher Foresees Human Testing of AIDS Vaccine Soon (p. 467)
Fatal Kawasaki Syndrome May Be Caused by Virus: Scientists (p. 467)
Scientists Clone DNA From Ancient Indian Brains (p. 467)
Australia Launches Assault on World Gold Coin Market (p. 470)
Eastern Europeans Fare Well in Cup Soccer (p. 475)
Editorials: The End of Whaling?
Implications of the Airbus Accident